Please Put (Our New Year Party) in the Subject Heading.

Okay. Here's your chance to show off and win great Gift Certificates from our local merchants. Everyone invited to our upcoming SPBPA New Year Party 2012 is eligible to participate.

Go ahead and create your very own special dessert. It could be something unique, something wild and crazy, or just something outrageously delicious. And, just for the fun of it, you'll be judged accordingly by our members.

Help us Celebrate the New Year

Heck, it could be Grandma's recipe, or perhaps something you created on the spur of the moment. After all, it is said that creativity is the mother of all invention...right?

So, whatever it is, get busy, get creative, and make or bake till your heart's content. Our SPBPA members and guests will surely appreciate your effort.

Good luck!

PS. If you will be participating, please let Lisa Mohn know @ 908.322.4999 as soon as possible. Thank you.
